SUMMARY

A programming enthusiast, particularly in the realms of web development and mobile applications. Initiated my coding voyage by successfully completing the Hactiv8 bootcamp as a full-stack web developer, after making the decision to pursue a career in Software Engineering subsequent to earning a bachelor's degree from university and completing the Hactiv8 bootcamp. A flexible expert with robust skills in troubleshooting and a fervor for technology, aiming to shift my career path to the IT sector. Skilled in various coding languages, enthusiastic about taking on novel hurdles, and dedicated to perpetual growth through learning.
